

Lent Group

The Gospel is printed on the hymn sheet. Read it again either individually or out loud and then consider the questions below together.

What does a mother mean to you?

How might we be good- or rather- better children of God?

What light can you bring to the world this Lent and beyond?